BATTLE HORSE MINISTRIES

January, 2026

Beloved in Christ…

All praise be to God. Let us thank God who has guided us faithfully in the last month. Though we have been through many difficult situations and problems, He has given us the grace to see this month. Let us pray to our Almighty God that all the resolutions we have made in this month, especially to grow in God's word, be fulfilled. Even in this month, He helped us complete and send this magazine, so I thank God for the same. I believe the messages and stories in the magazine will be useful for you as well, to talk about God.

Prayer…

Dear Father, you have guided us without any fails in the past month, we thank you, King. This month let many souls be met through us. We pray that you protect rulers, government officials, doctors, nurses, teachers, police officers, sanitation workers and bless us all. We pray in the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ that our needs will be met, and our worries and sorrows will be removed, and we will always be happy in this new month. We pray that messages and stories of this magazine will be useful to everyone who reads it. Hear our prayers our good Father. Amen.

UNSEEN REPENTANCE

See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. Even though he sought the blessing with tears, he could not change what he had done. Hebrews 12:16,17

In this verse, we see that Esau sought and cried with anguish but found no repentance. To see why he was so distressed and weary, we look at the incident in Genesis 25:28-34. Esau, who was hungry and weary, asked Jacob for some stew. Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright." Esau replied, "Look, I am about to die, what good is the birthright to me?" (Gen. 25:32)

Esau and Jacob were hungry. Jacob was baking bread and preparing stews to satisfy his hunger. What should he choose? The birthright? Or perhaps the food that satisfies his hunger? Esau used his own hunger as an excuse for neglecting his birthright. That day Isaac's older son, Esau, chose bread and stew. He despised the birthright by saying "I am about to die. What good will this birthright do to me?"

What is the birthright?

The firstborn son's share refers to the special role of the eldest son in the family headship and property that was given to him in ancient times, especially in biblical traditions; it is not just property, but also the importance and blessing for the future of a family, emphasizing that those who ignore it, like Esau, will lose.

Key features:

Priority:The privilege of the firstborn son.

Family headship: Taking responsibility for the family after the father's death.

Inheritance share: A double share or special share in the property.

We see that Esau, who neglected to eat for a meal, could not regain such a great blessing no matter how hard he tried.

Similarly, in today's environment, are we losing God's salvation by doing sinful things for a few small reasons, for a few minutes of happiness and peace?

Let us think right now, let us turn away from sin, and let us preserve God's grace. Amen

WHAT'S SPECIAL?

A few days prior, while I was on the way to my work I saw a bird and had a smile, not because it did something but that it wasn't familiar to me. As I was busy seeing this new bird (seagull), I ignored the bird (crow) that I usually see. I was so curious to know about this bird that I googled about it and found that it was a migrating bird and usually appears at the time of winter and also read different qualities of this bird - Their glands are being blessed that they drink salt water. While reading, I felt these birds would be very clever and searched for the same, but found out that crow was in the top list. I smiled as I realised the bird that I ignored was standing top as a clever bird.

We all have some special qualities which we may ignore or the worst may compare ourselves with others and sit as if there is no best quality in us. And we forget the very familiar verse in this, "You were made in the image of God." Genesis 1:26

Each and every one is special in their own way. No one is left without a special quality or talent, as we see even the birds are given quality as per their adaptation, are we not much better than them in God's sight? We all are made with some different quality that we may use it and excel in our life and also give glory and honour to God. So, Let's give ourselves to God and ask his guidance and support in our life. Let us find out our Special Quality and use it for the glory of God.

Prayer: Loving Father, We thank You for creating us in Your image and for making us so beautifully.

Lord, often we marvel at the talents of others, yet we forget the special qualities and talents You have placed within us. Guard our hearts so that we do not compare ourselves with others or look down on ourselves.

Just as You have given a unique ability to every bird, help me to realize that You have given me a purpose and a special talent as well. I commit myself to finding that special quality within me and to use it not for my own pride, but for Your glory alone.

You alone guide me. In Jesus' name we pray, our good Father, Amen.
